

Colonial Williamsburg Resorts

Fact Summary

Colonial Williamsburg Resorts operates six hotel properties, restaurants, a spa, three golf courses, eight tennis courts, walking trails, and swimming pools.

Official Colonial Williamsburg hotels

- The Williamsburg Inn: 62 guest rooms in an elegant setting for discriminating guests, transformed to a new level of excellence in May 2017 following its most extensive renovation in 15 years
- Griffin Hotel – 43 spacious guest rooms with balconies overlooking natural areas and flexible meeting space for 15 to 100
- Colonial Houses – 81 total rooms with period furnishings and modern amenities nestled along Duke of Gloucester Street and throughout the restored Revolutionary City
- The Williamsburg Lodge: 323 guest rooms in a setting that reflects its Virginia location; 45,000 square feet of meeting space including the 11,200-square foot Virginia Room. Extensive guest room renovation completed in 2018.
- The Williamsburg Woodlands Hotel and Suites: 299 guest rooms and a superb value offering 12,812 feet of function space overlooking a wooded ravine and waterfall
- The Governors Inn: 128 comfortable economy accommodations located a short walk from the Historic Area

Dining venues

- The Rockefeller Room at the Williamsburg Inn – Opened in June 2017, the Rockefeller Room serves as a contemporary fine dining venue and the Inn's signature dining experience, paying homage to the evolution of American cuisine
- The Goodwin & Terrace Rooms at the Williamsburg Inn – serve as an upscale breakfast retreat and continue serving food and cocktails throughout the day
- Regency Room – Now serving as a bookable private venue for meetings, conferences, corporate events, weddings and other events, and also hosts holiday brunches and dinners
- Restoration Bar – The perfect spot for a nightcap or to relax offering a variety of small plates and bar snacks
- The Social Terrace – A new 7,000 square-foot patio extension to the main lobby of the Williamsburg Inn that offers al fresco dining with a menu of shareable, inventive dishes including entrées, flatbreads and desserts. The beautiful gathering area highlights and outdoor bar, multiple seating areas and a gorgeous water feature
- Sweet Tea & Barley – refined Southern cuisine in the comfort of the Williamsburg Lodge with indoor dining around the bar and fireplace or outdoors on the patio with heated umbrella tables and fire pits

- Traditions – showcasing mid-Atlantic cuisine and modern flair offering wines from Virginia and around the world at the Williamsburg Lodge
- Historic Taverns – Christiana Campbell’s, Chowning’s, King’s Arms and Shields – serving hearty and distinctive fare that sustained our Founding Fathers – with contemporary flair and Southern hospitality in authentic surroundings
- Huzzah’s Eatery – Sandwiches, pasta, burgers, and made-to-order pizza with a variety of microbrews on tap; a perfect casual eatery for family and friends
- The Gold Course Grill and the Green Course Grill – casual mid-day dining overlooking the Green and the Gold courses throughout the golf season with bar open until the courses close
- The Museum Café – the perfect spot to enjoy soups, wraps, salads, desserts and even a glass of wine

The Golden Horseshoe Golf Club – 45 holes of golf

- Gold Course – 18 holes designed by Robert Trent Jones Sr., celebrated 50 years in 2013; traditional golf architecture; 6,817 yards, par 71; completed a multi-million dollar renovation in July 2017.
- Green Course – 18 holes designed by Rees Jones, celebrated 25 years in 2016; longer and more forgiving than the Gold; 7,120 yards, par 72.
- Spotswood – Jones Sr. updated the original Williamsburg Inn nine-hole course; includes one par 5 and two par 4s; family friendly but still presents a challenge to accomplished golfers; 1,865 yards; par 31.

The Spa of Colonial Williamsburg, managed by Trilogy Spa Holdings

- Designed by Sylvia Sepielli, recipient of the 2006 International Spa Association (ISPA) Visionary Award, and her team
- Set in a Georgian Revival building on South England Street, a few steps from the Williamsburg Inn and Williamsburg Lodge; radiates Southern charm and harmonizes with its historical surroundings
- 33,000 square feet, including 12 private treatment rooms and two suites for couples, a full-service salon with three pedicure, five manicure, four hair salon and two makeup stations; separate men’s and women’s locker and changing quarters
- Offers rejuvenating therapies inspired by five centuries of wellness practices
- Fitness training quarters with Nautilus fitness equipment and group exercise classes
- Spa cuisine menu available to guests receiving services in the spa

Websites

- ColonialWilliamsburgResorts.com

Social Media

- Facebook.com/CWResorts
- Instagram.com/CWResorts