

LIGHTFOOT TENEMENT

The Lightfoot Tenement is a two-story dwelling offering two separate rental suites—one on the first floor and one on the second floor. In the 18th century, a tenement was often used as a guesthouse for visiting family and friends.

Each floor offers guests a queen canopy bed, a sitting room with fireplace, and private, full bath facilities. A garden area is located in the back of the house.

