

MARKET SQUARE KITCHEN

The Market Square Kitchen is located behind the main tavern. It has one ADA wheelchair accessible room on the first floor with a queen canopy bed and a fireplace. It has a private, full bathroom with a roll-in shower and full bath. The second floor has twin beds and a private, full bath.

Eighteenth-century kitchens were detached from the main house to prevent the spread of food odors and extreme heat and to reduce the risk of fire.

